We are looking for an enthusiastic, flexible and hard-working person to join our experienced and friendly learning support staff. You will need to be positive, proactive and resilient. This is an excellent professional opportunity to develop skills working with SEN pupils with moderate learning difficulties (MLD) and complex needs in a welcoming special school setting. Our school encourages pupils and staff to grow, linked to our six outcomes.

You may be expected to work across a range of age groups from 5-16 years and with individual pupils or classes with different medical, social and learning needs to support across the curriculum, in and out of class.

Part of the role will involve supporting pupils with personal care needs, safeguarding, administering pupil medication and applying communication, sensory plans and strategies on an individual and small group basis. Expertise in using British Sign Language, Makaton and other total communication approaches to support speech, language and communication needs an advantage.

Applicants must have English and maths, at least GCSE grade C or equivalent.

Application forms are available from the school office or the school website. Visits welcome within Covid restrictions - please call to discuss/arrange.
